We give thanks to the volunteers who faithfully serve throughout the year.

The Crisis Center solely operates based on donations from individuals, churches and organizations. There is not any government entity assistance. The Crisis Center continues because of people who care to help those in need.

We ask all churches and organization to help spread the word that the Byrd Ridge Crisis Center is here to help! Client counts have remained low throughout the year. We hope soon to return to normal operation, letting clients come in and choose the food items they wish to receive. As expected, this will depend on the status of the COVID-19 pandemic. Currently clients who need clothing are allowed to come in and look for items.
